

Catchment Sensitive Farming Advice Request Form

Catchment Sensitive Farming (CSF) offers advice and training to help farmers produce food in a way that protects their local water, air and soil.

This form is required to request advice from CSF. Once complete, please send to your local CSF team at csfengland.org/contact

Contact name:	Date:
Address and postcode:
Telephone:
E-mail:
Farm business name:
SBI and / or CPH number:
Farm details: Include size and enterprise type
Why are you asking for advice? Describe the current issues your farm business is facing related to water, air and soil

Have you been recommended to request advice from CSF by the Environment Agency?
What advice would you like from CSF? Tick all that are appropriate
Soil and nutrient management (including slurry & manures)
Ammonia reduction
Farm infrastructure and machinery
Pesticide management
Water resources & flood mitigation
Further information: Is there anything else it would be useful for us to know? Please include descriptions and consider attaching relevant maps, photographs, etc.
Agent details (if applicable): Name, email address and telephone number

For more information about the advice CSF can offer visit csfengland.org

To attend a free CSF event or speak to your local adviser at an agricultural show, see what's happening near you at csfengland.org/events

For more information about how we handle your data visit gov.uk